

Panther TV Announcements for Monday, August 31, 2009

Reader 1: Good morning Panthers! Welcome to Panther Radio. I'm _____.

Reader 2: And I'm _____. Today is Monday, August 31, 2009 and today is a blue day.

Reader 1: The very first BIONIC/INTERACT meeting is scheduled for this Thursday, September Third at seven-ten A.M. If you have any questions, see Mr. Mitchener in Student Services. The OHS Step Team is also having a meeting this week in room one fourteen, Mr. Harper's room. The meeting will start directly after school and be over by three forty. Last week, the OHS Drama Club met for the first time and announced the Fall Play, Leading Ladies. Drama club will meet again, this Friday, September fourth at two-forty-five in the auditorium to vote on new Drama Guild members and tour the theater facilities. Everyone is welcome to come! On September third, the Chess Team will be having its first meeting of the year. There is no experience required, so stop in and see what the team is all about! On Friday, September fourth during lunch, the Big Brother/Big Sister program will be recruiting high school students who are interesting in mentoring elementary school children. To find out more information on this program, stop by their table that day at lunch. Remember, Big Brother/Big sister time can count as service hours. There are also several other opportunities to earn community service hours. Sign up for a number of volunteer projects in Student Services including babysitting, Hesed House work, recycling electronics around town, helping at the Oswego Library opening, and many more.

Reader 2: There will be a Future Educators Association meeting in room one-forty-nine at two-forty on Tuesday, September first. The Future Educators Association is a club for students that are interested in becoming a teacher, so if that applies to you, stop by and check it out. Ecology club is also having a meeting on Tuesday, September first. Remember that Ecology Club is for recycling and reducing waste in the OHS community and is open for newcomers and old members. This meeting will take place right after school. The Oswego Police Department is starting a Police Explorers post. This program is for anyone who has graduated eighth grade and is between the ages of fourteen and twenty. Applications are located in Student services. If you have any questions, call officer Spears at six-three-zero five-five-three seven-three-five-nine or stop by Officer Garcia's office, temporarily located in the main office. There is an important Horticulture club meeting on September first in room eighty. This is a kick-off meeting to socialize, plan the year, and eat pizza so feel free to come! Finally, we'd like to congratulate the Panther Lady Freshmen Tennis Team for defeating Rosary four to zero last Tuesday. Leanne Schillinger and Caitlin Witt were winners at singles and Taylor Paisley, Ashley Blocker, Caileigh Morton and Lauren Langler were winners at doubles. The J.V. Team also competed against Rosary, and lost a close match with four to three. Good luck at your next game, ladies!

Reader 1: Thanks for listening to Panther Radio. Have a good second week of school and keep up the Panther spirit!
