And I'm _____. Today is October twenty-sixth, two thousand and nine, and it's a blue day! To start this week off, here is your weekly Media Monday! The most notable movie releasing on DVD and Blu Ray tomorrow is Orphan; a wonderfully wicked tale of a couple who adopts a little orphaned girl, but little do they know there's something different about Ester. On television this week look forward to picking up Battlestar Galatica: The Plan also on DVD and Blu Ray tomorrow. Also, for the next few weeks some of your favorite shows may be taking a mid-season break in order for the production crews to film new episodes without having to stop airing the current ones. Some shows, such as Glee, may be on hiatus for more than one week but Panther TV will be here to tell you when all the shows are back on air. Finally, look forward to seeing This Is It, Michael Jackson's last concert and other interviews brought to you in Imax 3D. Also in honor of Halloween, be sure to check out The House of the Devil, the story of a girl brought to babysit in the middle of nowhere where her neighbors has ulterior motives for her. And now, with today's sports update, here's Alexis!

This weekend, The Oswego High School Boys Cross Country Team finished second at their meet and have now qualified to the IHSA Double-A Sectional meet this Saturday, at East Peoria. The top finishers at the meet this week were Freshman Caleb Beck, Sophomores Jared Konrardy, Zach Kingsbury, RJ Salerno, and Senior Adam Hiemenz. Great job guys! We're proud of you and good luck at sectionals! All girls and boys interested in Track & Field, there will be an informational meeting regarding pre-season conditioning on Thursday, October Twenty Ninth at Two Forty Five in the cafeteria. If you cannot attend the meeting, please see Coach Bechina in room Two Forty Eight or Coach Edwards in the P.E. department. Back to you, Cara.
