

News letter

Fall sports are well underway with some of them concluding here in a couple of weeks. Through out the year, we must make many schedule changes due to weather or facility conflicts. To stay on top of all these changes, we recommend all parents become registered with Highschoolsports.net. Not only can you view our most current athletic schedules from this website, you will also be alerted by email when games are postponed or cancelled.

Another web based program the athletic department has to offer is Corecourse gpa.com. This program will help you track your athlete's core course GPA and help you prepare them for the world of collegiate athletics. It is free to all Oswego East parents and students. All division I, II and III colleges will be looking for this GPA information when recruiting athletes. This website also includes NCAA recruiting information. Students should see their counselor or the athletic department for more details.

During the past month of September we had many activities going on in the athletic department. We hosted a sophomore volleyball invite in which we finished second out of 8 teams. The next weekend we then hosted a 6 team girls' swim invitational. On Friday, September 25 we had our first Chipotle night at the football game where free dinners, chip cards and t-shirts were given away. Our student spirit section, The Wolfpack, has reorganized and will support all OEHS sports at various times throughout the year. Our marching band has been performing at all of our home football games and will be continuing its support of the athletic department by appearing at all home Friday night basketball games.

We also have the following events coming up in the next few months:

- Oct. 5 – All Sports Booster meeting @ 7pm
- Oct. 13 – 17 – Homecoming
- Oct. 26 – Boys' bowling begins
- Oct. 28, 29 and 31 – Girls' volleyball regional hosted @ OEHS

Please remember to have all paper work turned into the athletic department before the beginning of winter sports if you are planning on trying out.

Finally, the athletic department would like to congratulate Coach Jeremy Hillman on being selected WBBM News radio’s “Coach of the Week.”

We look forward to the continued support of the community at all of our athletic events.
