2-SHOT / CAM #2

#1: Good morning! I’m Sam
Devermann.

2-SHOT / CAM #2

#2: And I’m Melissa Pankuch. And
this is Wolfpack News for Thursday
August 27th, 2009.

OC / CAM #1

#1: Our top story: important
information about logging on to school computers. Type your ID number as your username. Do not type a password; instead click OK. You will be asked if you want to set a password. Click YES. At the prompt, type in a password. It must be at least 6 characters long. Retype your password as directed. Click OK.

OC / CAM #3

#2: Each student should now have a
school I.D. There are two numbers on the right side. The top number is your year in school, and the bottom
number is your bus route. Questions?
See Dean Wikoff.

#1: Here’s another announcement
from the Deans. Students who drive to school must have a parking permit.
One can be purchased from the Dean’s Office for 50 dollars. The permits will not be sold between 7:20
in the morning and 2:35 in the afternoon.

#2: The Writing Center has expanded its hours. It will be open every day this year. Not only that, but it will be open for all four blocks. So whether it's a poem, an essay, or a Social Studies report about Jacksonian Democracy, check out the Writing Center. It's in E-140, just down the hall from The Commons.

OC / CAM #1

#1: The Math Center is also open to help solve that one problem, or many problems that have you stumped. The Math Center is located at the table right outside of E-380. It's open every day during A, B, and D lunches.

OC / CAM #3

#2: All N-A-H-S officers will meet on Tuesday after school in B-272. It will run about 30 minutes. There will be an all-NAHS meeting following school on Tuesday, September 8th.

OC / CAM #1

#1: The Drama Club will hold a brief but mandatory meeting tomorrow immediately after school in B160. It will cover auditions for the fall, winter, and spring productions, as well as the Illinois High School Theatre Festival, and the school year's field trips.

OC / CAM #3

#2: Juniors or seniors who want to help plan the prom and the prom fashion show should come to today's meeting. It will be held at 2:40PM in G-222 or see Ms. Suby if you cannot attend.

2-SHOT / CAM #2

#1: The first Student Council meeting is this Monday, after school, in the L-R-C.

2-SHOT / CAM #2

#2: New members are welcome. So show up and get involved with your school.

2-SHOT / CAM #2

#1: MOSAIC holds its first meeting today at 2:45pm in F-127. See Ms. Aldaba if you cannot attend.

2-SHOT / CAM #2

#2: We had another wet morning.

2-SHOT / CAM #2

#1: Here's Katie with the forecast.

OC / CAM #3
OTS: Weather Map

#WX: It was a rainy 63 degrees when we arrived at East this morning. The clouds will stick around and another thunderstorm is expected. Today's high temp will be 71. More rain is expected tomorrow which means we could have a sloppy field for the football game. The high again will be in the lower 70's. Looking ahead to the weekend, the weather service predicts no more rain. We'll have partly cloudy skies on both days. The high temperature on Saturday will be 70 degrees, while Sunday's high will be only 64. That's today's look at the weather. Now back to Melissa and Sam.

2-SHOT / CAM #2

#2: East students now have an opportunity to travel to the Central American paradise of Costa Rica. The trip will be during spring break in 2010.

2-SHOT / CAM #2

#1: Informational meetings about this journey will be held on Tuesday in G-325. The first session is at 7:15am and the second is at 2:40pm.

2-SHOT / CAM #2

#2: Sign up now because prices will go up on September 4th. See Mrs. Iddings or Mrs. Niesluchowski for details.

2-SHOT / CAM #2

#1: Now it's time for the latest entertainment news.

2-SHOT / CAM #2

#2: Here's Casey with the details.

OC / CAM #3

#ENT: Celebrity Crime reporter Dominick Dunne died yesterday from bladder cancer. Dunne was perhaps best-known for his coverage of the O.J. Simpson trials. He was 83.

OC / CAM #3

#ENT: Bob Dylan has cut his first ever album of Christmas Songs. The album "Christmas in the Heart" will be released on October 13th. Royalties from U.S. sales will go to the Feeding America charity.

OC / CAM #3

#ENT: Finally, even though they're involved in a messy divorce, Jon and

Kate got together to send two of their kids back to school. Their twins Mara and Mady started third grade yesterday.

OC / CAM #3

ENT: That's today's look at the entertainment scene. Now back to and

2-SHOT / CAM #

#2: Here's a round of congrats to the staff of our student newspaper, The Edge. Our fine publication earned a first class rating from the National Scholastic Press Association.

2-SHOT / CAM #

#1: The Edge was also cited for its coverage of national news. The first issue of THE EDGE will be published in the last week of September.

2-SHOT / CAM #2

#2: The football season kicks off tomorrow

2-SHOT / CAM #2

#1: Here's John with the sports.

OC / CAM #3

OTS: Sports

#SP: The Varsity Football Team opens their 2009 season tomorrow night. It will be a home game and their opponent will be Benet Academy. Kickoff is at 7pm. The sophomore game starts at 5pm.

IMSA 19 strokes. The Wolves were led by Brian Conlee's 40. Anthony Linkenheld and Dominic Gryz both shot a 41. The Wolves will next be in action tomorrow at Bolingbrook Golf Club. Their opponent will be Plainfield East.

OC / CAM #3
OTS: Sports

#SP: That today's sports. Now let's send it back to Melissa and Sam.

2-SHOT / CAM #2

#1: Finally today, we have another sign that the economy may be on the road to recovery. New predictions call for an increase in Labor Day travelers.

2-SHOT / CAM #2

#2: Triple A predicts that 2 million more Americans will leave home for the upcoming Labor Day weekend. An increase in travel means Americans are more comfortable spending their money, which could boost the economy.

2-SHOT / CAM #2

#1: And that's today's edition of Wolfpack News. I'm Sam Devermann.

2-SHOT / CAM #2

#2: And I'm Melissa Pankuch. Join us again at the top of second block here on East TV Channel 16.

2-SHOT / CAM #2

#1: Now let's stand for the pledge.
