2-SHOT / CAM #2

#1: Good morning! I’m Dan Taylor.

2-SHOT / CAM #2

#2: And I’m Corey Fyock. And this is Wolfpack News for Monday August 31st, 2009.

OC / CAM #1
OTS: Top Story

#1: Our top story: Auditions for the fall play. Auditions will be tomorrow held after school in the P-A-C. This year’s fall play is Shakespeare’s “Taming of the Shrew,” which was the inspiration for the movie, “The 10 Things I Hate About You.” Students who want to audition should memorize a one to one-and-a-half minute monologue. Pick up an audition application in B-160. Callbacks are on Wednesday.

WHY’-koff

#2: Don’t know which bus to take? Your route is printed underneath the class number on your student I-D. If there’s no bus route listed, or if it is wrong, see Dean Wykoff and she’ll issue a new one. All buses depart at 2:38PM. They will honk one minute before leaving.

OC / CAM #1

#1: Here’s how to log on to school computers. Type your ID number as your username. Do not type a password; instead click OK. You will be asked if you want to set a password. Click YES. At the prompt, type in a password. It must be at least 6 characters long. Retype your password as directed. Click OK.

OC / CAM #3

#2: Students who drive to school must have a parking permit. One can be purchased from the Dean's Office for 50 dollars. The permits will not be sold between 7:20 in the morning and 2:35 in the afternoon.

OC / CAM #1

#1: Students interested in participating in the Science Olympiad should contact either Mr. Korczak or Mr. Johnson in the Science Department. The Science Olympiad is open to students from all grades.

OC / CAM #3

#2: The Writing Center is now open every day. Not only that, but it's open for all four blocks. Our crack English Department will be on duty to help you with any type of writing. The Writing Center is in E-140.

OC / CAM #1

#1: The Math Center is also open every day during A, B, and D lunches. It's located at the table right outside of E-380.

OC / CAM #3

#2: East TV, that's us. We're the wonderful group that presents Wolfpack News each day. East TV will hold a brief, mandatory meeting tomorrow
