OTS: Weather Map

#WX: We had our first really cold morning of the school year. You could tell because you no doubt had frost on the windshield when you started up your car. The temperature was a bone-chilling 25 degrees. Today will be beautiful but chilly. The high will be a sunny 46. Pretty much the same deal tomorrow...the high will be 47 under partly cloudy skies. More of the same on Thursday; however the weather service predicts that we could get one more taste of 60 degree temps some time this weekend. In the mean time, stay warm. That's the forecast. Now back to Melissa and Katie.
