

LONG BEACH LION'S “ROAR”
NOVEMBER 13, 2009

ATTENDANCE LINE

When your student is going to be absent from school, please be sure to call and report the absence on the attendance line at 636-3301. If you want to request homework, you can do so at that time. All requests for homework should be made before 10:00 AM.

AMERICAN EDUCATION WEEK

American Education Week is an opportunity for all of us in the Long Beach Community to say THANKS to the men and women that serve our children everyday in public education. Please take time out to thank those educators for what they do and be sure that the week of November 16-20, 2009 is a week to honor public education.

MONDAY – “TEACHER APPRECIATION DAY” – Wear your teacher’s favorite color.

TUESDAY – “HELPING HANDS DAY” – Bring items for the PAWS food drive.

WEDNESDAY – “CHARACTER/KHAKI DAY” – Wear your Character Counts colors.

THURSDAY – “PATRIOTIC DAY” – Wear Red, White, & Blue.

FRIDAY – “GRANDPARENTS – SPIRIT DAY” – We are inviting grandparents to visit Long Beach from 7:45 – 10:00. Everyone is welcome to wear your Long Beach colors or spirit wear.

GRANDPARENTS DAY

RESERVATIONS FOR GRANDPARENTS WILL NOT BE ACCEPTED AFTER TUESDAY, NOVEMBER 17TH. If your student plans to attend and has not turned in their RSVP, please do so before 3:30 PM on Tuesday, November 17th. We will not be able to accommodate last minute changes after that day.

CHARACTER COUNTS CALENDARS ARE ON SALE:

The Character Counts Club made calendars that are now on sale for $3 each. If you are interested in purchasing one please put your child’s name and the teacher on an envelope with the money enclosed. Mrs. Gullickson will fill the order and send calendar home with your student. If you have any questions, please contact Mrs. Gullickson at 630-636-3305.

FIFTH GRADE MUSICAL

The fifth grade musical is Thursday, November 19th at 7:00 PM in the cafetorium. They are performing the “Lights of Freedom”. We hope all can come out and enjoy this performance as the students have worked really hard to make it a wonderful experience!
